China In Ten Words - By Yu Hua. Translated by Allan H. Barr

Has China really changed so much since it moved from "Mao Zedong's monochrome era" to Deng Xiaoping's "polychrome era of economics above all"? Answering his own question in China in Ten Words, author Yu Hua suggests that one kind of madness has simply been replaced with another. New airports and highways are announced in wild numbers today, just as during the Great Leap Forward (1958-61) crazily inflated harvest figures led to more than 8 million people dying of hunger in Sichuan province alone.
